I do my thing
and you do your thing.
I am not in this world
to live up to your expectations.
You are not in this world
to live up to mine.

You are you.
I am I.
And if by chance we find each other . . .
. . . it's beautiful.

13. Have a nervous breakdown so you can spend at least one night in the infirmary.
14. Say bad things about this book.

COMMON

THE STUDENT CENTER: relax between obligations; flop at the end of the day; snack bar reenergizer; couches for the thoroughly disgusted; games for a change of pace; late hour territory for young lovers; post office for the homesick; bookstore for the wealthy; cafeteria for the starved.

... and we hang on to our no place ... happy to be alive ... and in the inner city ... or ... like we call it ... home

— Lucille Clifton

GROUND

Some place the bliss in action, some in ease,
Those call it pleasure,
and contentment
these.

— POPE

The foolish man seeks happiness
in the distance;
The wise man grows it under his feet.

NEW ASSISTANT COACH NAMED

Dan Kenney, a graduate assistant basketball coach at East Carolina University for the past two years, was named assistant basketball coach at Pembroke State University by athletic director Lacey Gane.

From Morristown, N.J., Kenney earned both his B.S. and M.A. Ed. at East Carolina. During the past two years he has not only worked with the East Carolina varsity, but has been in charge of ECU's out-of-state recruiting and the basketball squad's academics.

Joe Gallagher, head basketball coach of Pembroke, says Kenney's primary duty at PSU will be recruiting in North Carolina.

Kenney, 24, was a member of Morristown High School's state championship teams in cross country in '67 and indoor track in '69. He began helping with the East Carolina basketball program as an undergraduate in '72, being an aide to Tom Quinn.

In his senior year he began assisting Coach Dave Patton of ECU, remaining with him as a graduate assistant in both '76 and '77.

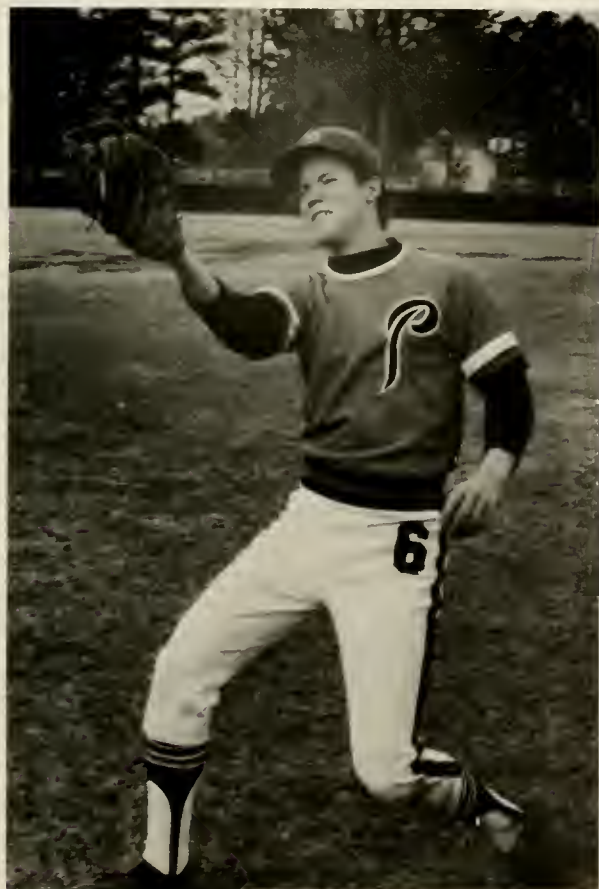

In his new position at Pembroke State, Kenney is looking forward to the challenge. "I know from Pembroke State's participation in the Carolinas Conference and NAIA District 26, this is good basketball," he said. "I realize, too, that we will have to recruit good players to compete in such a league — and, of course, this will be my job. I'm going to scout the state of North Carolina to bring in more and better players."

THE PLAY

I hear laughter across the way,
 And now I see a tear.
I glance upon the crowd again,
 And see the sudden fear.
I hear applause
 slowly the voices die.
And when I see the hole-in-one,
 I breathe a longing sigh.

A NEW NATIONAL CHAMPION

(L. to R.) Coach Crain, Garry Henry, Jeff Moody

GARRY HENRY, PSU's NEW NATIONAL X-COUNTRY
CHAMPION

Garry Henry, Pembroke State's premier cross country runner over the last two years, became the Braves' fifth national champion by winning the NAIA National Championship Meet in Kenosha, Wisconsin.

Henry, who had finished seventh in the event a year ago to earn All-American honors, smashed the course record at the University of Wisconsin — Parkside with a time of 24:11 over a five mile run. The previous mark was 24:21, set by John Kebiro of Eastern New Mexico in last year's championship meet. Finishing close behind Henry were Mark Rabuse and Bob McCloud, both of Pittsburgh State of Kansas.

Adams State of Colorado won the team championship by placing four runners in the top 25 to earn 102 points. Second went to Saginaw Valley State with 133, followed by Fort Hayes State with 236. Pembroke State was eleventh, the Brave's best showing ever in the event. Last year, PSU had placed thirteenth.

The other runners for Pembroke State were: 53) David Eskins, 25:29, 76) Jeff Moody, 25:36, 124) Wayne Broadhead, 26:07, 215) Dan Ryberg, 26:46 and 244) Tom Harris, 27:05. There were 411 harriers in the field.

Henry, who received a plaque to commemorate his victory, was running in third place 10 yards behind the leaders with just 400 yards to go when he began his kick. PSU Coach Crain described Henry's run for the finish:

"He just bent his head forward for the stretch run and turned it on. I felt it, I anticipated that he was going to win it. He took the lead for good with 200 yards remaining and won by 15 yards."

"I was jumping up and down, but when I reached him to congratulate him, all he could say was, 'Man, I'm tired,'" Crain added.

Henry, a sophomore from Australia, had spent the summer touring the United States instead of training, causing some sub-par (for Henry) performances in meets this season.

Crain feels it is dedication that wins awards for athletes, and for Garry Henry, a national champion.

THE GREATEST GIFT

No greater gift hath man to give
Than love; for in this trait
There is no jealousy, or war,
Or anything displeasing in God's sight.
It, like a fever, burns within
Until it breaks and shows itself —
A gift well worth receiving.
Also like a fever, it is caught
And then passed on to others.

Several months of hard work have passed for the Indianhead staff and now it is time for us to sit back and admire our work. We would like to thank everyone for their cooperation and patience. Without the understanding and concern of many students, faculty, and administration, this yearbook would not have been possible.

We will always be appreciative of the faith that was entrusted in us as editor and assistant editor. Please honor this book. It was created for you.

Honest men esteem and value nothing so much in this world as a real friend. Such a one is as it were another self, to whom we impart our most secret thoughts, who partakes of our joy, and comforts us in our affliction; add to this, that his company is an everlasting pleasure to us.

WOMEN'S DORMS

Any woman who survives dorm life for four years deserves a Ph.D.D.L. degree (Doctorate of Dorm Living) in addition to any other degrees earned while at PSU.

It takes a lot of skill and training to live in a girl's dorm room. Just consider the average room. It is extremely hard to take two MACK trucks full of clothes, blow dryers, make-up, books, clothes, etc., and put it all in a shoebox room. Some rooms are so full of potted plants that only Tarzan would be safe in them.

Some girls plaster their walls with posters. Mushies such as "Love will keep us together" and "A woman's world is the man she loves" can be found. And of course there are some decorative items that a girl has to stuff in the closet when mom and pop come to visit. These include Everclear bottles and roach papers and so on.

And then clothes play a very important role in dorm life. You have to have fluffy slippers, pajamas with a hood, pajamas with feet and let's not forget the slinkies for slinking around before the 11:45 call.

Everyone must have a Secret Angel at sometime or another. You will probably get stuck with someone you detest and you'll secretly have to do something nice and sweet for one another . . . kinda like asking Charles Manson to go to Homecoming with you . . . you're inviting trouble.

I could go on but everyone is familiar with the 2 a.m. fire-drills, the popcorn, the gossip, etc. The only thing left is the BC pills that must be hidden from your roommate.

Dorm living is really unique. Just ask any female who resides in one of those boxes . . . but disregard the ugly talk you will probably get in response.

In Appreciation

Have you ever noticed how we as students take advantage of a lot of people here on campus . . . people we cast out of our minds until we need them for something. We rush to and from classes, we litter the landscape, we park in spaces not allotted for us, we cut our feet and get the flu.

"Thanks, Doc Huckereide, thanks, Nurse Sampson, thanks, Chief, thanks, Mr. Lawnmower." Thanks to all the infirmary staff, security staff, and maintenance staff. We may not always stop to thank you but please remember that we students do care.

And when they wish, help them to depart . . .

BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

The Department seeks to meet the increasing demand for trained men and women who can assume responsible leadership in business, education, and professional life. The student is offered programs leading to a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration with a major either in Management or in Accounting or to a Bachelor Of Science degree in Business Education with certification by the State to teach Business subjects at a Secondary Level.

Other objectives of the Department are: (1) to offer "Introduction to Business" and "Income Tax Procedure" as a Social Science electives which may be taken by any student of the University in partial fulfillment of the basic studies requirements, (2) to serve the business community of the area by sponsoring conferences and management training programs, (3) to encourage business research, and (4) to prepare students for graduate school.

The objective of the Department of Economics is to provide fundamental training in economic theory supplemented by knowledge of quantitative tools and understanding of modern economic institutions and policy problems.
In conjunction with other parts of the University the Department offers a program leading to a Bachelor of Arts degree.

Education

EDUCATION

The primary function of the Department of Education is to provide professional preparation for individuals who are preparing to teach in public schools. The total program of professional education is designed to encompass an understanding of the learner, or the learning process, of the school and the meanings and purposes of education, and to foster the development of professional skills in methods and techniques of instruction. The Department of Education utilizes the resources of the entire University for the academic subject matter necessary for breadth and depth of background in liberal arts and in sciences, both of which are essential to effective teaching. The professional program is designed to meet the criteria for teacher certification as set forth by the North Carolina Department of Public Instruction, and the criteria for accreditation by the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education (NCATE), and the criteria implied in the philosophy of the University.

STUD

PECULIARITY

A peculiar tragedy took place on the campus of Pembroke State University when four students, celebrating an intramural victory, died suddenly. David Brisson, suitemate of one of the male victims, told reporters. "I tell you, it was a peculiarity. The TV was on and President Carter was just about to address the nation; everybody was loose, but healthy. I stepped into the laundry room and when I returned, corpses were all over the place. It was my understanding later that the President swallowed his teeth."

The autopsy revealed that the students died happy-they laughed themselves to death.

I PREDICT:

Predictions for '78-'79 by a PSU Senior

1. Everything will definitely get worse before it gets better, especially sex after sixty-two.
2. Peter Frampton will shave his head to reveal his true identity: Mickey Mouse.
3. Prospects in the job market: World War III will start next week.
4. Jimmy Carter will solve the energy crisis but receive walking papers from wife, Rosalynn.
5. Jimmy Carter will appoint Morris Vice-President and Nine Lives will become the title of the National Anthem.
6. Creeps from Mars will descend upon PSU looking for intellectual human specimens and return to their planet empty-handed.
7. Chewing gum will stick to your shoes if you step on it.
8. This yearbook will win the Nobel Prize for Literature, and copy editors Barbara Counts, Joy Atkinson, Donna Cooper, Kathy Cox, and Adelle Lewis will casually decline it; however, Betty Ann will step in and straighten the matter out.

First Sight
Lambs that learn to walk in snow
When their bleating clouds the air
Meet a vast unwelcome, know
Nothing but a sunless glare.
Newly stumbling to and fro
All they find, outside the fold
Is a wretched width of cold.

As they wait beside the ewe,
Her fleeces wetly caked, there lies
Hidden round them waiting too,
Earth's immeasurable surprise.
They could not grasp it if they knew,
What so soon will wake and grow
Utterly unlike the snow.

Rules For Kissing:

1. Make sure that the person has that cool minty taste, which is left by a "Certs."
2. Always leave the person with a smile on their face!
3. Don't kiss anything you're not familiar with!
4. Keep your tongue in shape!

5. Keep a jar of vaseline handy in case of chapped lips!
6. Massage lips twice a day!
7. No gagging allowed!
8. Practice breathing exercises in case you come in contact with an athlete!

A Glance at PSU Men

We are puppets, Man in his pride, and Beauty fair in her flower;
Do we move ourselves or are moved by an unseen hand
at a game
That pushes us off from the board, and others ever succeed,
Ah yet, we cannot be kind to each other here for an hour:
We whisper, and hint, and hint, and grin at a brother's shame
However we brave it out, we men are a little breed.
— TENNYSON

O blest retirement! friend to life's decline,
Retreat from care, that never must be mine,
How blest is he who crowns in shades like these,
A youth of labor with an age of ease;
Who quits a world where strong temptations try,
And since 'tis hard to combat, learns to fly.

To each . . .
. . . his own

Hand
 Grasps hand, eye lights eye in good friendship,
 And great hearts expand,
 And grow one in the sense of this world's life.

— BROWNING

A man once asked Diogenes what was the proper time for supper and he made answer, "If you are a rich man, whenever you please; and if you are a poor man, whenever you can."

RETROSPECT AND REGRET

A man doesn't really become a man

Until he has loved and been loved,

Hated and been hated.

Until he has laughed, only to find himself weeping.

Until he has failed and achieved

The warm love from the same circle of family and friends.

Until he has experienced the God-awful

Feeling that comes from hurting a close

Friend or his father.

Until he has shunned wise advice

Too often, only to find that
Dad was right.

Until he has caused tears to flood the Eyes of a woman, or two.

And then wipe those eyes
dry.

Until he has laughed with his lover, and ended

Up weeping himself.

Until he has sampled enough of life and

Regret, and fairness, and has

Known that he would not change

A minute of it — if he could.

— Pine Needle

SEASONS IN THE PHASES OF LIFE

In Spring I am born
And as a child I know nothing
In Summer I learn
And as I grow I know very little
In Fall I am strong
For now I bare the strength of manhood
In Winter I am bitter
As I face the coldness of a cruel world
Each season is repetitious
But for me, life never repeats.

Rick Hall

HOW TO GET AHEAD WITH THE PROFESSOR

1. Bring the professor newspaper clippings dealing with his subject. If clippings dealing with his subject cannot be found, bring in clippings at random. (He thinks everything deals with his subject.)
2. LOOK ALERT! Take notes eagerly. If you look at your watch, don't stare at it unbelievably and shake it.
3. Nod frequently and murmur, "How true!" (This may seem exaggerated, but to the professor it's quite objective.)
4. Sit in front of the room near him. (Applies only if you intend to stay awake.)
5. LAUGH AT HIS JOKES (?) (If he looks up from his notes and smiles expectantly, he has told a joke.)
6. If you must sleep, arrange to be called at the end of the period. (It creates an unfavorable impression if the rest of the class has left and you sit there alone, dozing.)
7. Ask for outside reading. (You don't have to read it, just ask.)
8. Be sure that the book you read during the lecture looks like a book from the course. (If you do math in psychology class and psychology in math class, make sure the books match in color and size.)
9. Ask any questions you think he can answer. Conversely, avoid announcing that you have found the answer to a question he can't answer
10. Call attention to his writing. (This produces an exquisitely pleasant experience connected with you.) If you know he's written a book or an article, ask in class if he wrote it.

IN MEMORIAM

235

Mark Norris
Born — May 24, 1958
Died — December, 1977

In all our life of friendships
There's no one above you —
You shared your smile unselfishly
It was easy to love you.
And we can't believe
You've really gone away.
Somehow, somewhere
We know you're near.
And we can't believe
You've really gone to stay.
And we can't help wishing
You were really here.
Now we sit and watch the cloudy skies
As teardrops meet our smiles
The rainbow that you brought to us
Made all the clouds worthwhile.
Sometimes we can't help feeling
God has treated us unfair
He took the one that meant so much
He took the one who cared.
May the Lord watch out for you now
As you looked after us
Let him keep your precious smile alive
For as long as you are smiling
We know we will survive
There's only one thing lost now
And it's not only ours.
You had so much to give the world
And such a short, short time.

— Kim Doren

This song is for a very, very dear friend who always lived as if each day were really his last. He loved everyone around him and everyone loved him. He always made the rainbow a little brighter. He gave his gift by giving his love. He was only 19, but he had more friends than some people twice his age. When Mark died, his life had made a difference. We hope that he can hear our prayers and feel our love now as always. We miss you so much.
